

BEFORE	DURING	AFTER
What kind of selection is this? (genre) Is it a story (fiction)? A poem? Does it give me information or tell me directions? How do I know?	Is this making sense? How do I know? Is this selection easy to read or hard to read? Why do I think so?
What will this selection be about? (predict)	Are my predictions correct so far?	Were my predictions about the selection Correct?
What do the title and pictures tell me? (preview)
What do I already know about the topic that will help me? (preview)	How can I figure out difficult words or parts of the selection I don't understand?
What do I want to find out about the topic? What are my questions? (questions)	What have I learned so far?	What did I learn? What are the answers?
Why would someone write this? (author's purpose)	What is the author saying directly? What is the author implying? How do I feel about what the author is saying?	Do I agree with what the author said?
Why would someone read this?
Why am I reading this selection? (reader's purpose)	What can I do to make sure I Understand it? What can I do if I don't understand What I am reading?	Are there any parts that I should read again to be sure that I understand what it meant?
Can I read this quickly or should I read it carefully? (What's my plan?)	How is my plan working? Do I need to make any changes?
What strategy would help me most to read this selection? (strategy use) Should I look for the plot, main idea? Should I ask questions, or paraphrase by using key words what I have read?	How is my strategy working? Do I need to make any changes? Can I visualize what has been described?
		How would I summarize what I read?